

Uzbekistan's Political System

Formation of civil society institutions in the implementation of the most important tasks of social, economic, political and legal development of the state

Bicameral parliament which works on the professional basis

Free and active participation of citizens