

FNC's Functions

Modifying the Government's work through discussion, question and answer sessions, recommendation by the members and investigating complaints

Discussion of constitutional amendments and draft laws, which are approved, amended or rejected by the council

Analyzing the annual draft budget of the federation and conducting debates on international treaties and convention