

Transformation of Socio-Economic Sectors

High economic growth rates during the last two decades. Knowledge based economy, start of renewables and high rates of literacy.

Improved welfare of the people and institutionalized the concept of qualitative life throughout the country. People have been rates as strategic assets.

Peace and civil harmony in the country, promotion of tolerance and political wisdom and participation