

UAE's Economic Resilience

Establishment of a clear policy of openness and cooperation in order to align with the interests of other global players

Diversification of economy to reduce its dependence on oil, Rise to Renewables, robust private sector, strong service, tourism and banking sectors

Building of more balanced management of global economic forces/actors